UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
 O R D E R

The petitioner has come up to this Court seeking bail. His appeal on conviction and sentence is pending before the High Court. His second bail application has been rejected by the High Court vide impugned order dated 12.12.2024.

Vide order dated 24.02.2025, this Court had issued notice to the State of Maharashtra. Ms. Rukhmini Bobde, learned counsel appearing for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for bail and argued that considering the heinous nature of the offence, the petitioner should not be granted bail.

We have heard learned counsel appearing on both sides. Considering the period of incarceration of the petitioner, which is more than 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ years and the entire facts and circumstances of this case, we are of the opinion that a case of bail is made out for the petitioner and therefore, the prayer for bail is allowed.

Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail forthwith on the usual terms and conditions to be decided by the concerned Court, including the following conditions :-

(a) We are informed that the petitioner and the victim reside in the same building. It is directed that the petitioner shall not reside in that building or visit that building for a period of another 05 years or till the time his appeal is finally disposed of by the High Court, whichever is earlier.

(b) In case the petitioner does not comply with any of the conditions of bail, either imposed by the trial court or imposed by this Court as above, his bail is liable to be cancelled forthwith without further reference to this Court.

The present Special Leave Petition shall stand disposed of in the above terms along with pending application(s), if any.
